Baltimore Polytechnic Institute • Saturday March 21, 2009 • 9:00 am – 3:00 pm

The Baltimore CASH Campaign presents Money Power Day 2009 – ‘Boost Your Financial Well-Being’

Money Power Day is a free financial fitness event dedicated to helping participants boost their financial well-being. This is an energy-packed day filled with exciting activities designed to inspire and inform people of all ages and income levels. This year's event is expected to draw over 1,300 participants from the Baltimore metro area. Now more than ever, people are looking for answers to their financial questions, and Money Power Day is designed to help.

- Exhibitor Hall – Over forty nonprofits, for-profits, and government organizations will provide financial services, information, and education that the participants can use immediately to work toward their financial goals
- Workshops – Presenters will cover topics which help people learn the steps to achieving financial dreams, such as buying a home, starting or growing a small business, getting a college education and basic investing
- Credit Café – Participants may choose to pull their free credit report and receive one-on-one credit counseling
- Free Tax Preparation Services – Volunteer tax preparers will be present to file taxes and help workers earning under $42,000 a year receive all the tax credits they deserve
- Youth Zone - Financially-focused activities for youth of all ages will be available, including Port Discovery's Money Game Road Show, workshops, The Power Buck Game, and more

Money Power Day will not end on March 21, 2009. The Baltimore CASH Campaign helps Create Savings, Assets and Hope year round! Workshop materials will be posted on the Money Power Day website so individuals and community organizations can take advantage of the knowledge presented. And participants will be notified of other year-round activities to boost their financial wellness. Money Power Day is just the first step!
